TRANSFORMING MEETINGS

Skype for Business from Braintree has brought together the magic of Skype and the power of Lync, to transform the future of meetings. Designed for organisations with more than 20 employees, even when your staff aren't in the same location, Skype for Business brings them together in one room - allowing you to collaborate using desktop sharing, as well as communicate with them via a device of your choice.

Make, receive, and transfer business calls in the office, at home, or on the road using your phone, PC, and mobile device.

Communicate with your team and clients, anywhere, on any device, with security and control. Live stream a meeting with up to 10 000 participants, or dial into a conference using your phone.

Avoid being affected by exchange rate fluctuations, and only get charged local call and data rates.
